Job Description

JOB TITLE	Skills Coach
RESPONSIBLE TO	Assistant Principal

INTRODUCTION

The following information is provided to assist staff joining the College to understand and appreciate the work content of their post and the role they are to play in the organisation. However, the following points should be noted:

- Whilst every endeavour has been made to outline all the duties and responsibilities of the post, a document such as this does not permit every item to be specified in detail. Broad headings therefore may have been used below, in which case all the usual associated routines are naturally included in the job description.
- Staff should not refuse to undertake work which is not specified on this form but they should record any additional duties they are required to perform and these will be taken into account when salaries are reviewed.
- Shipley College is an Equal Opportunities Employer and requires its employees to comply with all current equality policies in terms of equal opportunity for employment.
- Shipley College is committed, where possible, to make any necessary reasonable adjustments to the job role and the working environment that would enable access to employment opportunities for disabled job applicants or continued employment for any employee who develops a disabling condition.

OVERALL PURPOSE OF JOB

To work on our Future Leaders and PSHE Programmes placing our students' needs at the centre of all that they do.

Helping students navigate the complex transition to adulthood and provide the platform for them to become successful in life and work.

Delivering a range of engaging activities from social action projects to volunteering, that broadens horizons, celebrates our differences, ignites their ambition and raises their self-belief and aspiration. Supporting our students to become more ready for work and more able to make a difference in the world as a result of this programme.

Helping students become more world-aware (increasing their understanding of themselves and others), to experience more of the world they live in and will help to shape (the workplace, our community and the natural environment) and to learn (by doing) the skills, behaviours and ethics they will need to be safe, productive and purposeful in modern Britain.

Delivering sessions to groups of students in a fun and engaging way, using a mix of techniques that appeal to and engage young people. These sessions also include support with CV preparation and UCAS Applications.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- To support our students to develop the wider skills that employers need, whilst also working towards qualifications either in College, in the workplace or in the community.
- To help students make and record their progress and skills' development against their Individual Learning Plan.
- To facilitate the delivery of engaging personalised and group-based learning activities.
- To adapt sessions to make them relevant to the needs of your specific students.
- To offer a high level of customer service to students and other key stakeholders, including internal College staff and external speakers.
- To make topics interesting, fun, engaging and interactive and stimulate conversation and debate.
- To celebrate your students' positive behaviours and support those students that need more guidance to improve their conduct.
- To help the organisation deliver cross-college activities, such as helping with GCSE exams or open evenings.
- To be a positive role model for your students and a great ambassador for the College.
- To personalise the learning for your students as each of their needs will be different.
- To work with your team to share feedback, ideas and best practice to continuously improve on the service provided to students.

GENERAL

- To demonstrate a positive commitment to the implementation of the College's Equality Diversity and Inclusion Policy and to the maintenance of a culture of continuous quality improvement, assurance and innovation.
- To be aware of the responsibilities under the provision of the Health and Safety at Work Act and the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations (COSHH) in terms of the post holder's own safety and the effects of their actions on colleagues, students and visitors.
- To be responsible for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young learners and vulnerable adults the post-holder is responsible for or comes into contact with.
- To undertake mandatory training and staff development/CPD training as required by the nature of this post and the range of duties described within this job description.
- To use IT as designated appropriate to the nature of the role.
- To act in accordance with the College's expectations as set out in the Staff Code of Conduct and contract of employment.
- To undertake such other duties commensurate with the grade of the post as may reasonably be required.

Message from the Principal

Shipley College is a wonderful place to start (or to continue) your career and we are delighted that you are considering completing an application for a post with us.

Shipley College is a small, friendly place that really cares about every person that comes through the door and we pride ourselves on giving every student the individual support they deserve.

Situated in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Saltaire, it is a great place to study and easy to get to by bus, train and car.

Our practical, vocational and work-related courses include Apprenticeships, full-time and part-time courses across a range of Departments. I am delighted that our Student Survey results and employer feedback continue to be extremely positive as we provide a fantastic learning environment for all our students.

We have a fabulous team of colleagues who give up an extraordinary amount of time to support their students and their fellow members of staff. The dedication and attention to quality they exhibit is what makes our College so successful. I am proud of the commitment and hard work of all the college's staff, students and governors and pleased that this has been recognised by Ofsted in our latest inspection.

If you meet the criteria of the post advertised and feel that you would enjoy working here, we hope you will make an application to join us.

We do ask that you accept, in the interests of economy, that if you have not heard from us by the interview date that you will not have been selected for interview on this occasion

Diana Bird
Principal
